

SCHEDULE

For The Queen's International Women's Conference: Celebrating Women's Leadership in International Graduate Research

9:00-9:20 Registration and Refreshments

9:20-9:30 Opening Remarks

9:30-10:15 Opening Presentation

CAROLE MORRISON

Gifts of Internationalization

Associate Director, Career Services, Operations and Business
Development, Queen's University

10:20-11:20 Graduate Student Research Panel

JENNIFER RITONJA

Night Shift Work as a Carcinogen for Breast Cancer

PhD Candidate Epidemiology, Queen's University

SHIKHA GUPTA

Paying out-of-pocket for Pills: Insider stories of Canadian Women with Chronic Disabilities

PhD Candidate Rehabilitation Therapy, Queen's University

LUISSA VAHEDI

Community-Level Perceptions of Sexual Interactions Between United Nations Peacekeepers and Haitian Civilians

MSc Candidate Epidemiology, Queen's University

ALKA SOOD

A Study of Immigrant IMGs Re-licensing in Ontario: Their Experiences,
Reflections and Recommendations

MEd Student, Queen's Faculty of Education

11:20-12:20 Break for Lunch

Join us in the lobby for refreshments and to get to chat to groups supporting women at Queen's including Women in International Security and Queen's Female Leadership in Politics

12:20-1:00 Keynote Presentation

DR. JILL SCOTT

From Warp Speed to Turtle Slow: It's TIME to THINK for a CHANGE
Vice-Provost Teaching and Learning, Queen's University

1:00-2:00 Alumni Panel

SANJEETA SHAKRAWAR

Process Automation, Product Development, Mechanical Engineering

VALERIA LI

Senior Risk Analyst at Brookfield Renewable

DR. GAYATHRI TILAK SINGH

Senior Microelectronics Engineer at CMC Microsystems

2:00-3:00 Professional Development

SANDRA BROOKS

Coaching Workshop

ICF certified Executive Coach and founder of Sandra Brooks Coaching

3:00-3:15 Closing Remarks